

Home & School Organization Board Application

Saint Anthony Catholic School Mission Statement

Catholic School students receive a Christ-centered educational foundation that inspires them to be meaningful leaders and prepares them academically, emotionally and spiritually. Our educators are empowered with the freedom to create innovative techniques to reach and teach our students, providing them with opportunities to learn and to sustain our proud legacy.

Please complete the following questionnaire and submit an essay to apply for the Saint Anthony Home & School Organization. After reviewing your interest in serving as a Home & School board member, we will notify you if your application has been approved for the ballot.
